Xinghong Hua

Managing Director, President for Greater China, Projects International

Xinghong Hua has had a career of over 25 years in private equity, venture capital, distressed assets, corporate M&A, fundraising and international dealmaking. He covers technology, energy, natural resources, infrastructure, manufacturing, agriculture, healthcare and real estate.

From 2008 to 2021, Mr. Hua held leadership positions at two leading global private equity firms: Cerberus Capital Management LP, as Managing Director and President for Greater China, and Lone Star Funds, as Managing Director and Head of Investments for Greater China. During this time, he oversaw deal origination and execution, senior relationship management and fundraising. From 2004 to 2008, Mr. Hua served as Vice President at Alcoa Asia Pacific, responsible for M&A and Strategic Planning in the region. From 1998 to 2004, Mr. Hua served as a Senior Manager at Pace Global Energy Services, an international energy investment and consulting firm based in Washington DC. From 1997 to 1998, he served at Federal Government Relations Office of Atlantic Richfield Company (ARCO), a U.S. major oil company later merged with BP. Mr. Hua started his career in 1994 at Bank of China's Head Office in Beijing.

Mr. Hua earned his B.A. and M.A. in International Politics from Peking University in 1991 and 1994 respectively, and his M.A. in International Relations and International Economics from the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) in 1998. He sits on the boards of various private and publicly listed companies and advises Board Chairs on strategic and transactional matters.

E-mail: huax@ProjectsInternational.com